Woman Had Row With Neighbor and Then Used Poison

GAVE CHICKEN AND COW FEED

When Several Fowls Died and Cattle Were Sick. Investigation Showed That Food Contained Arsenic—Severe Penalty May Be Imposed.

(Special to the Daily Press.)
NORFOLK, VA., March 21.—Annie Butts, colored, of 10 Smith's court, was held for the next grand jury by Police Justice Simmons today upon the charge of poisoning chickens and two cows of Fannie Walters, colored, her next door neighbor at 8 Smith's court. The women had been quarreling for some time, but peace had apparently been established, when the Butts woman, according to Fannie Walters, offered her a dish pan full of old bread for her chickens and cows.
The latter accepted the bread and fed it to her chickens, one cow and a calf.
Six chickens died and four others are now affected. The cows were about to die, when the owner called in a veterinarian, who saved them.

In court today the veterinarian said the bread contained arsenic as shown by bits found in the yard and brought in by crumbs found in the craw of one of the dead chickens, which he opened.
The cows, the doctor said, had also without question suffered from arsenic poison.

The statute under which the prisoner was arraigned provides for punishment upon conviction of from three to ten years in the penitentiary or in the discretion of the trial jury from six to twenty months in jail, with a fine not to exceed $500, either or both.

DISMISSED DOG.

Justice John Could Not Withstand Intelligent Canine's Appeal.
(Special to the Daily Press.) RICHMOND, VA., March 21.—One of the sportiest-looking Boston terriers in town was before Crutcherfield this morning on the charge of having violated the muzzle ordinance.

The dog, an amiable and intelligent member of the pet colony, jumped obediently to the top of the old mountain before the throne of Crutcherfield and sat up on his hind legs for inspection.

He pleaded not guilty in three wags of his tail and cocked his ears elo-quently to the judge. A number of doggy folks testified that he was not a half dog, and the pup and his master wagged out of court without paying a fine.

Hurricane's Bloodhounds "Flunk."
(Special to the Daily Press.) SUFFOLK, VA., March 21.—"Hurricane" Branch with his bloodhounds, this morning returned from Hot Springs, where he had been assisting in the effort to capture the murderer Hansboro. The scent was too old for the dogs and the rain rendered it impossible for them to make much progress. No arrest was made.

Jules Verne Dangerously Ill.
PARIS, March 21.—A dispatch from Amiens confirms the report that Jules Verne is dangerously sick. He continued writing until recently when he was obliged to suspend all literary work and his duties as a municipal councillor.

AFRAID OF HARGIS

Pushed Into Grand Jury Room and Bluffed Jurors.

TESTIMONY OF WIFE'S AUNT

Significant Remarks of Alexander Hargis When He Heard of the Assassination of Cockrell—Why Case Against Britton Was Dropped.

(By Associated Press.)
LEXINGTON, KY., March 21.—The inquiry into the case of the Hargises and Edward Callahan, charged with complicity in the murder of Cockrell, for the purpose of deciding the question of admitting them to bail, was resumed today.

A. C. Bowman, foreman of the Breck-in county grand jury, testified that in the grand jury investigation against Will Britton, for killing Cockrell, Riley Goldiron had just given sensational testimony against Britton, when Alexander Hargis rushed into the grand jury room and by threats compelled the grand jury to adjourn, after violently trying to get it to investigate a charge of perjury brought by Britton's friends against Goldiron. Bowman said the case was dropped and never resumed by the jury through fears of Hargis.

Mrs. Sarah Patrick testified that at Jackson, after Cockrell's death, Alexander Hargis had said: "It was a good shot; it killed him, and I am a friend of the man who did it and will defend him."

Mrs. Patrick is an aunt of Alexander Hargis' wife.

Dr. Crane Dies From Heart Trouble.
PITTSBURG, PA., March 21.—Rev.
Edward P. Crane, D. D., one of the most prominent divines in this vicinity and formerly chancellor of the Western University of Pennsylvania, died at Tallahassee, Fla., from acute heart trouble. Under the administrations of Presidents Cleveland, Harrison and McKinley, he was United States consult at Hanover, Germany. Dr. Crane was born in New York city in 1832.

Newport News Women Interested

Miss Julia M. Beu, Overworked and Nervous, Tells of Her Remarkable Cure by Vinol.

How many women right here in Newport News are in her condition dragging out a weary existence? They are not sick enough to lie in bed, but they are overworked, tired out, run down, thin, nervous and miserable.
Such women will be interested in Miss Beu's letter.

Miss Beu writes: "I was nervous and weak, having constant headaches, and that general worn out, overworked tired-all-the-time feeling. Vinol was recommended to me as a wonderful cod liver oil restorative for weak, tired women. I tried it and it has made an entirely different person of me. I am well and strong, and can do my work with ease and without fatigue. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Vinol to overworked, tired, nervous women, as I believe it is without an equal in its wonderful restorative powers."

Mr. Congdon, of Congdon's Ideal Pharmacy, states that Vinol never

MISS JULIA M. BEU.

fails to cure and build up such women, and they offer to every one in Newport News health and strength if they will but try Vinol on their guarantee. Because Vinol, contains the active curative principles of cod's liver oil actually taken from fresh cod livers, it works in harmony with nature, makes rich, red blood and strengthens in a natural manner every muscle, nerve and organ in the body.
It is the greatest vitalizer and strength creator known to medicine.
It gives new life and strength to the aged; it cures stomach troubles, hard colds, hanging-on coughs, restores lost appetites, and gives strength to the convalescent.

If it fails to give satisfaction Cong-don's Ideal Pharmacy agrees to cheerfully refund the purchase money.
